

FREE FAMILY ACTIVITY NIGHT: SOLAR ENERGY

Become a “Clean Energy Champion” this summer and learn about our Earth’s renewable energies during the Energize Connecticut Center’s Summer Series.

On Friday, June 16, the Center will explore the wonders of our Sun and solar energy with interactive activities suitable for all ages, such as jewelry-making with solar beads, creating sun art, building self-watering planters and solar powered circuits.

Light refreshments will be served.

Energize Connecticut – programs funded by a charge on customer energy bills.
