

¡Bienvenidos amigos!

The Greater Bridgeport Symphony is proud to present a program of Latin-American and Spanish music at the historic Klein Memorial Auditorium on Saturday October 28.

The program features Puerto Rican composer Roberto Sierra's Tumbao from Sinfonia No. 3 – "La Salsa," Two Dances from Argentinian composer Alberto Ginastera's ballet Estancia, Pablo Casals' O Cant dels Ocells, and Manuel de Falla's El Sombrero de Tres Picos. A highlight of the evening will be a thrilling guitar solo by Benjamin Verdery on Joaquin Rodrigo's Concierto de Aranjuez, composed at the end of the Spanish Civil War.

Tickets range from $15 to $59, with special discounts for students and families. With the Family Pack Deal, a family of five can come to the concert for only $55.50 (ticketing charges may apply).

"The Latino community is so strong and vibrant in Bridgeport," said GBS Music Director Eric Jacobsen. "This is something we've wanted to do for a long time!" Jacobsen would have conducted the concert himself, except that his first child is due on October 28. Guest conductor Donald Palma, himself a noted bassist, will lead GBS that night.

Tickets are available at www.GBS.org, or by calling (203)576-0263. Family and student discounts available by phone order only.
