The true story of a DREAMER and his quest for citizenship.

WET: A DACamented Journey is the autobiographical account Alex Alpharaho, born Anner Alfaro Cividanis, an American in every sense except on paper. This one man show examines the mental, emotional, and psychological hardship Anner has to endure while navigating a broken U.S. immigration system in order to secure his livelihood in Los Angeles – the only home he has ever known.
